Hoarding Response Service Differences between Hoarding and Collecting

Embarrassment about their possessions

Feel uncomfortable when others see their possessions

Livable space is significantly compromised

Feel sad or ashamed after acquiring additional items

Often in debt

Collecting

Sense of pride in items collected

Joy in displaying and talking about their collection

Collections are usually organized

Experience satisfaction adding to their collection

Able to budget time and money

